PROFESSIONAL INFLUENCER MEDIA KIT

ABOUT THE CREATOR

Kush is a Kenya-based digital creator who has carved out a unique niche at the intersection of artificial intelligence and viral entertainment. With a rapidly growing audience of over 240,000+ followers, Kush specializes in producing AI-generated video memes that consistently capture the attention of millions across TikTok and beyond.

What started as a passion for creative storytelling through emerging AI tools has evolved into one of the most engaging AI-meme accounts in the African creator space. Kush's content blends humor, relatability, and cutting-edge AI video generation to produce short-form videos that rack up millions of views and drive massive organic engagement.

With a 70% male-skewed, Gen-Z dominant audience spread across Kenya, South Africa, Uganda, Tanzania, and the United States, Kush offers brands direct access to a tech-savvy, mobile-first demographic that is highly receptive to innovation, entertainment, and product discovery.

CONTENT PILLARS

■ AI VIDEO MEMES

Transforming everyday scenarios into hilarious, AI-generated cinematic shorts using tools like Runway, Kling AI, Pika, and more.

■ RELATABLE COMEDY

Tapping into universal Gen-Z experiences — from phone battery anxiety to social media culture — with a distinctly African flavor.

■ AI TOOL SHOWCASES

Demonstrating the creative potential of AI video generators through entertaining, platform-native content that educates while it entertains.

■ PAN-AFRICAN VIBES

Infusing East African humor and cultural references into globally relatable formats, creating content that resonates from Nairobi to New York.

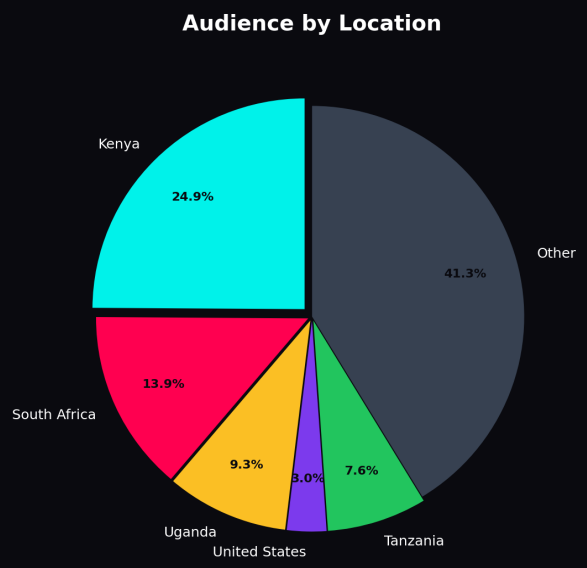

WHY PARTNER WITH KUSH?

■ VIRAL TRACK RECORD	Multiple videos exceeding 3M–18M views with exceptional share rates (296K+ shares on top performer).
■ NICHE AUTHORITY	One of the few African creators dominating the AI-meme space — a rapidly growing, brand-friendly niche.

■ HIGH ENGAGEMENT	Audience actively comments, saves, and shares content.
■ GLOBAL + LOCAL REACH	Strong base in East Africa with growing audiences in South Africa, the US, and Europe — ideal for brands targeting emerging markets.

IDEAL BRAND PARTNERS

■ AI & SaaS Tools — Video generators (Runway, Kling, Pika), AI voice tools (ElevenLabs), editing software (CapCut, Descript), and productivity platforms (Notion, Canva). The audience is actively searching for the tools used to create the content.

■ Tech & Mobile — Smartphones, power banks, accessories, and mobile services. Comments show high interest in "fully charged," "power bank," and "two phones" — direct product alignment.

■ Gaming & Entertainment — Mobile games, streaming platforms, and digital entertainment services targeting Gen-Z males in Africa and globally.

■ Fintech & Apps — Mobile banking, crypto platforms, remittance apps, and payment solutions targeting the African diaspora and young, mobile-first consumers.

■ Fashion & Lifestyle — Streetwear, sneakers, and youth culture brands looking to tap into the African Gen-Z market through meme-native advertising.

■ Audio & Music — Headphones, earbuds, music streaming services, and audio tools. The AI-meme format lends itself perfectly to sound-driven product integration.

CONTENT STRATEGY & PROCESS

Kush follows a proven 5-step content process that ensures every brand partnership delivers maximum impact:

1. DISCOVERY & BRIEFING — Understanding your brand goals, target audience, key messages, and campaign KPIs. We align on tone, visual style, and integration approach.

2. CONCEPT DEVELOPMENT — Crafting 2–3 creative concepts that blend your brand naturally into the AI-meme format. No forced ads — only content that feels native to the feed.

3. AI PRODUCTION — Using cutting-edge AI video tools (Runway Gen-4.5, Kling AI, Pika, ElevenLabs) to produce visually stunning, platform-optimized content. Every frame is designed for the TikTok algorithm.

4. REVIEW & REFINEMENT — One round of revisions included. Fast turnaround with clear communication throughout.

5. PUBLISH & AMPLIFY — Strategic posting at peak engagement windows (9:00 AM EAT for East African reach). Cross-promotion via Linktree and pinned comments for maximum conversion.
